2019 CAVE CREEK RODEO DAYS

Letter From The President

Welcome to the 2019 Cave Creek Rodeo Days! We hope you are as excited to be here as we are! The Rodeo is now in its 42nd year and promises to be as exciting as ever! Annually the WPRA awards 4 rodeo's a best footing award sponsored by Justin Boots. We are pleased to announce that Cave Creek Rodeo Days received the 1st Place Justin Best Footing Award for the 2017 season and received the 2nd Place Justin Best Footing Award for the 2018 season!

As always, we have many people to thank so let us start with our sponsors, advertisers, local businesses and the community and our dedicated Fans! WITHOUT YOU THIS RODEO WOULD NOT HAPPEN, and we appreciate the loyalty you have shown to the Cave Creek Rodeo Days annually! Without your support we would not have the financial ability to do this. New sponsors and advertisers are always welcome, so if you are looking for a great way to gain exposure, advertise and support the rodeo at the same time, please talk to us. You can connect with us at www.cavecreekrodeo.com, info@cavecreekrodeo.com or call us at 480-304-5634.

I also want to shout out to our MEMBERS and VOLUNTEERS! These dedicated individuals are 100% necessary to make this event happen. Cave Creek Rodeo Days has more than 160 volunteers from its Board of Directors to the person who helped you park your car. ALL of our volunteers donate their time to ensure the Town of Cave Creek has this wonderful event. If you see or meet one out there, PLEASE THANK THEM! Without them this outstanding event would not happen. It is very hard to get people to dedicate so many hours of their free time, without compensation, to put on such an elaborate event!

Cave Creek Rodeo Days is a non-profit 501(c) (3) corporation dedicated to keeping the Western Heritage alive in Cave Creek, Arizona. It is run by a volunteer Board of Directors who spend countless hours planning and producing the rodeo with no financial compensation. The Board sincerely hopes you enjoy the Cave Creek Rodeo Days, Professional PRCA Rodeo.

Thank you for your continued support!

Sincerely,
Beth Cornell, President

DEMOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

The Cave Creek Rodeo Days draws thousands of visitors annually to Cave Creek, Arizona during the three-day event, creating a noticeable influx of consumers in the area.

Cave Creek, Arizona has a population of 5,476 with a median household income of $76,149. The median property value is $465,500.

The Cave Creek Rodeo Days is entering the 42nd year in Cave Creek. Marketing statewide continues to be a critical element to developing fan excitement.

The Professional Rodeo Company Association (PRCA) headquartered in Colorado Springs, is the largest and oldest rodeo-sanctioning body in the world. Annually, the PRCA sanctions about 600 top-of-the-line multiple-event rodeos on the continent, in about 38 states and three or four Canadian provinces.

According to the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Inc. (PRCA), rodeo is one of the fastest growing sports in the U.S.

- More than 36 million people identify themselves as fans of Pro Rodeo, and many of them attend PRCA-sanctioned rodeos around the country annually. According to the Sports Business Daily, rodeo is seventh in overall attendance for major sporting events, ahead of golf and tennis.
- All PRCA rodeo events involve livestock, and the care of those animals fall on the stock contractors who buy or breed them, raise them, feed them, provide medical care when necessary and transport them safely between rodeos.
- The PRCA's 6.3 million loyal attendees across the U.S. are about 49 percent male and 51 percent female, 51 percent have household income of $50,000 and more than 67 percent own their own homes.
- Unlike most other professional sports, most contestants are paid salaries regardless of how well they do, cowboys generally pay to enter each rodeo. In 2016, the PRCA's membership included 4,692 cowboys, who comprise the majority of the association's roster. The PRCA includes one $6-million earner, four $3 million earners and more than 100 million-dollar earners, yet most of its competing members participate in fewer than 30 rodeos per year.
