

Royalty Expectation Statement & Code of Conduct

I understand that if I am awarded the title of Cave Creek Rodeo Days Princess, I will be a representative of Cave Creek Rodeo Days (CCRD) which is produced by the Cave Creek Rodeo Days Organization (CCRD). I cannot be a Princess for any other organization or entity once I accept this title. I will give up all other titles that have not ended prior to February 1st of the reign period.

I will strive to represent sportsmanship with high moral and ethical character. This title recognizes a number of attributes: sportsmanship, personality, public speaking and appearance. Therefore, it is my responsibility, as Cave Creek Rodeo Days representative to act, speak, and dress according to the presence my title requires any time I am in the public eye.

If I become the Cave Creek Rodeo Days Princess, I Will:

- Wear my crown and sash any time I am acting in the capacity as Cave Creek Rodeo Days Princess.
- Make myself available for all opportunities to appear as Cave Creek Rodeo Days Princess to the public.
- Be on time. No one should have to wait on you.
- Not use foul language, or chew gum in public while acting in the capacity as the Cave Creek Rodeo Days Princess.
- Remember the last thing you do is what they will remember. First impressions are important and last impressions are forever.

Dress Code Requirements:

- Cave Creek Rodeo Days Princess must adhere to PRCA arena dress codes when in a rodeo arena.
- Clothing should reflect a professional western image. Try to wear the shirt color for the rodeo theme of the performance when applicable (e.g., pink for Pink Night).
- Dress or skirt no shorter than 2" above knees.
- No sleeveless or tank tops, open back or bare midriff and at no time should bra straps be visible.
- Hair is to be styled fashionably. Pony tails or braids are acceptable alternatives; however, hair must be styled. Keep fingernails clean and pay attention to makeup, don't over do it.
- Keep hats clean and well-shaped and keep boots clean and free of mud.
- Sashes: clean and pressed. Carry pins for your sash at all times.
- Jeans: clean and preferably ironed.
